

Baker's Delight (Terre Haute)

Day One

Terre Haute is baking up some good stuff. Tour the Clabber Girl Museum to learn about this world-famous baking powder which has been made in Terre Haute since 1879. Enjoy lunch at the Clabber Bakery Shop and browse Antonia's Country Store.

Next stop, Arts Illiana Art Gallery. This 6-county Arts Council promotes the works of talented regional artists from Indiana and Illinois.

Tour the home of the Doughmakers. See how this unique bakeware is made and hear of how this once Cub Scout project turned into a million-dollar business. Enjoy complimentary cookies and shop the factory store.

Day Two

Visit the Swope Art Museum. This three-story gallery houses permanent collections of great American painters and sculptors like Edward Hopper and T.C. Steele.

Enjoy lunch in the Sycamore Farm Tearoom, a quaint restaurant set in an 1862 farmhouse. It's a real treat, serving up sumptuous food with great Hoosier hospitality.

At Indiana State University, visit the University Art Gallery for their impressive collection of professional, student, and faculty artwork in all forms of media.

For additional attraction, restaurant and lodging information –
Terre Haute Convention & Visitors Bureau